

LEVERAGING OPPORTUNITIES FOR UNIVERSITY-COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT THROUGH SOCIAL IMPACT LABS IN AFRICA

Keynote Speaker: Firminus Mugumya

Senior Lecturer, Department of Social Work & Social Administration,
Makerere University, Uganda

Date: 10th October, 2023

Time: 2-4 pm (Kigali/Oslo)

3-5 pm (Kampala/Dar es Salaam)

Place: Online via Zoom

Joining details:

<https://uiano.zoom.us/j/61727991447?>

pwd=QjVVL29XUTYzaTRIS09TQVILbXB5UT09

Password: 911992

An important methodology in the RESILIENT project is the community social labs. What are the potentials and challenges of social labs? How can they provide an opportunity for advancement of knowledge in social work? At this seminar, senior lecturer Firminus Mugumya will discuss how social labs can come to inform both academia and communities.

Keynote Speaker: Firminus Mugumya, Senior Lecturer at the Dept. of Social Work & Social Administration, Makerere University, Uganda.

RESILIENT
is funded by:

